EDITORIAL NOTE

Dr. Priyanka Darekar

Editor-Campus Herald

“Campus Herald” is a celebration of our campus community’s energy, innovation, and progress. Each initiative, achievement, and event featured here is a testament to the dedication, creativity, and resilience of our faculty and staff. Whether advancing research, nurturing student success, or fostering new collaborations, your commitment drives our collective growth and campus vibrancy. We recognise the challenges faced and the perseverance shown throughout each endeavour. As we reflect on recent milestones and stories, let’s remember that our shared purpose extends beyond our individual roles-it is about building a legacy of learning, inclusiveness, and impact.

As we reflect on new beginnings, this issue warmly welcomes the vibrant MBA Batch of 2025-27 to our IGSB family. This year’s induction, themed 'Metamorphosis-Unfolding wings of knowledge', had been designed to help new students transition smoothly into the academic journey ahead. From detailed orientation sessions to faculty introductions, the induction featured a blend of workshops, case studies, wellness modules, and interactive industry panels, ensuring holistic development and readiness for the challenges to come. Faculty and staff worked tirelessly to create a nurturing, inclusive environment, embedding the values and ethos of IGSB in every activity. The collaborative spirit displayed during the induction process sets a strong foundation for growth, innovation, and professional success.

Thank you for your unwavering support, your hard work, and your enthusiasm for excellence. May this bulletin inspire continued engagement and pride in all that we accomplish together as the IGSB family.
